Security Deposit:

STUCO requires a cash deposit and the signing of the contract before the service is connected. The purpose of the deposit is to secure payment to STUCO for electricity and water consumed. STUCO reserves the right to amend the deposit amounts referred to below. The security deposits amount is calculated based on your expected monthly usage. The following standard security deposits are used.

Electricity Security Deposit:

- $ 112.36 for 1 Phase Meter 3.2 kva
- $ 224.72 for 2 Phase Meter 7.7 kva
- $ 337.08 for 3 Phase Meter 13.3 kva

All deposits are refundable, less any balance due for electricity consumed, when the related account is closed.

Additional Information for New Homes:

New homes are subject to the kVA fee. This is a one-time non-refundable charge for connecting the new home to the distribution network. This amount is based on the electrical demand (kVA) mentioned on the inspection form.

Connection Fee	Amount
3.2 (25 amp)	$ 305.44
7.7 (35 amp)	$ 305.44
13.3 (35 amp)	To be calculated
